

17 May 1962

L-10457

Professor Jerome Rothenberg
College of Liberal Arts
Northwestern University
Evanston, Illinois

Dear Jerry:

Since, as must have been apparent, I like to argue, I found my brief visit in Evanston enormously stimulating; it's good to face a cold wind occasionally, both in terms of climate and controversy. The visit gave me enough energy to finish my thesis, which I sent off to Harvard a couple of weeks ago: 400 pages, mostly written since my visit, and of course, devastating to the positions of Strotz, Modigliani, etc.

My wife, I am glad to say, has entirely recovered from the effects of her operation, and is beginning to recover from the effects of my thesis-writing activity.

I hope I'll see you again before long.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel Ellsberg
Economics Department

DE/ss
Attachment (Noted)

P.S. I am attaching an itemized list of my expenditures, as you requested in your letter of April 26th.

bcc: M. Mattox
ref. inc. #15555, dtd. 4/26/62

ITEMIZED EXPENSES

D. Ellsberg

2/28/62-3/1/62

Bus fare to Northwestern	2/28	2.50
Orrington Hotel	2/28	9.00
Phone calls	2/28	6.50
Taxi, Northwestern to Chicago	3/1	7.00
Total:		25.00